

WiMW BRIEFING: A definition of 'terrorism'

The United Kingdom Terrorism Act 2000 defines terrorism as follows:

1. In this Act, "terrorism" means the use or threat of action where
 - (a) the action falls within subsection (2),
 - (b) the use or threat is designed to influence the government or to intimidate the public or a section of the public, and
 - (c) the use or threat is made for the purpose of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause.

2. Action falls within this subsection if it
 - (a) involves serious violence against a person,
 - (b) involves serious damage to property,
 - (c) endangers a person's life, other than that of the person committing the action,
 - (d) creates a serious risk to the health or safety of the public or a section of the public, or
 - (e) is designed seriously to interfere with or seriously to disrupt an electronic system.
